Caribbean character, generous space and a private setting in the heart of Savannah. Tucked away on Gloria May Drive, this four-bedroom, 3.5-bathroom family home offers 3,336 square feet of living space surrounded by mature landscaping and a sense of privacy. Positioned approximately 18 feet above sea level on an oversized lot, the home combines relaxed Caribbean-inspired living with plenty of room for family life. Outside, a private swimming pool and expansive grounds create an inviting setting for entertaining and enjoying the outdoors, while a large driveway provides ample parking. The location offers the best of both worlds, a peaceful residential neighbourhood with Countryside Shopping Village just minutes away, followed by Grand Harbour and easy access into George Town.
